FNEI Mini Grant Winner Hammocks Middle School Takes Trip to Kong Island

Foundation for New Education Initiatives, Inc. (FNEI) mini grant winner Hammocks Middle School has made significant progress with its project after receiving grant funding of $3,000.

Hammocks Middle School used the mini-grant to support a field trip to Universal Studios' Kong Island on February 21 for students in the Apple Coding Magnet Program. The trip was planned to provide a valuable opportunity for students to receive hands-on coding experiences.

When the trip took place, a total of 54 participants attended, including 35 Apple Coding Magnet Program students and 19 chaperones.

Upon the completion of the program's trip, students explored the park in small groups of two students per adult.

"Their experience in the Kongtrol 'class' was amazing. The students learned the program for coding the exploration vehicle and were able to use the program. Universal VIP Guides then walked us to Kong Island to be in front of the line to see what coding looked like in implementation," said Lois K. Seaman, Apple Coding Magnet Instructor at Hammocks Middle School.

The trip provided valuable lessons beyond entertainment.

"The students learned that design thinking, coding, and STEAM are important parts of Universal Studios (and life), and the key to immersive experiences which will open in Epic Universe in May," she added.

TEACH Grant

The TEACH Grant Program provides grants of up to $4,000 a year to students who are completing or plan to complete course work needed to begin a career in teaching. A TEACH Grant-eligible program is a program of study that is designed to prepare you to teach as a highly qualified teacher in a high-need field and that leads to a bachelor's or master's degree or is a postbaccalaureate program. A two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree is considered a program that leads to a bachelor's degree. A postbaccalaureate program is not TEACH-Grant-eligible if it is offered by a school that also offers a bachelor's degree in education.

Schools that participate in the TEACH Grant Program determine which of the programs they offer are TEACH-Grant-eligible. A program that is TEACH-Grant-eligible at one school might not be TEACH-Grant-eligible at another school. Additionally, even if a program meets the eligibility requirements to be a TEACH-Grant-eligible program, it may not be designated as TEACH-Grant-eligible by the school. Contact the financial aid office at the school you are attending (or that you plan to attend) to find out which programs at that school are eligible.
